Don'ts

Don't argue with the inevitable. The only argument available with an east wind is to put on your overcoat.

Don't preach too much. None preaches better than the ant and she says nothing.

Don't waste your feelings. Feelings are too rich cream to be skimmed for nothing.

Don't be too patient. "Once in a while," said Uncle Eben, "a man compliments himself on having patience when he's simply too lazy to make a kick."

Don't pack up worries. You can get them anywhere as you go along.

Don't let your stream of life be a murmuring stream.

Don't use a pile driver to pin on a bow of ribbon.

Don't measure success by accumulation, for this measure is false.

Don't talk over "prevailing conditions." Just make friends with your luck.

Don't fail to love your neighbors yet pull not down your hedge.

Don't kill yourself with unnecessary work. There was once a New England woman whose epigraph read "She hath done what she couldn't."—Ex.

A Wise Judge.

A young boy was taken before a Kansas City, Kansas, judge the other day charged with petty thieving. The judge pulled a dollar out of his jeans and handed it to the boy and ordered him to go to Lansing and go through the Kansas penitentiary and see where he would finally go if he didn't mend his ways and quit bad company. The young man said he would go and bring back a letter from the warden and its a safe bet that the boy will be made into a useful citizen.

REBELS DITCH TRAIN

200 Civilians Killed. Women Suffered Indignities.

San Antonio, Tex., May 26.—More than 200 civilians were slaughtered between Mexico City and Cuernavaca three weeks ago, according to private advices received today.

Rebels operating about Cuernavaca and Mexico City attacked a train on which Government employes were being sent to Cuernavaca to assume the governmental work in Cuernavaca, taken by the de facto forces a few days before. On the train were many women, wives and daughters of employes. Almost all of them were reported to have been subjected to indignities, after which a few of them were killed.

The train was wrecked south of Tres Marias on a heavy grade. The attacking force overwhelmed the little guard and continued pouring into the cars a heavy fire, while those who leaped from the doors and windows were brought down as they attempted to escape into the brush. Only one man—the express messenger—was left alive, according to the reports received here. The rebels obtained from the train a consignment of ammunition said to be 2,000,000 cartridges and 3,000,000 pesos of the new issue of currency.

Migratory Bird Law May be Nullified by Senate Committee.

According to a dispatch from Washington the migratory bird law, which is vigorously opposed by sportsmen of the Central West, may be nullified by the refusal of the Senate Committee on Agriculture to report favorably the $50,000 asked by the Department of Agriculture for its enforcement pending a decision from the Supreme Court on its constitutionality.

At a meeting of the committee last Monday testimony was offered to show that while thousands of birds are slaughtered in Southern States, hunters in the Upper Mississippi Valley are prosecuted if they shoot a legitimate sportsman's "bag." It was also testified that the Government has virtually delegated to the Audubon Society, made of New Yorkers, the right to say when and where the law is being violated.

Senator Reed appeared before the committee with A. D. Holthaus of St. Louis, representative of sportsmen in Missouri, Iowa and Kansas, and opposed the appropriation of any money for inspection service until the Supreme Court has definitely passed on the law, which has been held invalid in two District Federal courts and at least one State Appellate Court.

O-o-o-o Henry!

Detroit, Mich., May 23.—Before departing on a fishing trip today Henry Ford, in reply to Col. Roosevelt's speech in Detroit Friday, said:

"I consider an ex-President but little different from the ordinary citizen. In Roosevelt's case it is different. It has been seven years since he was president, and in that time he has entirely failed to understand the trend of events and the sentiments of the people."

"I consider Roosevelt so antiquated that the 'ex' business does not mean anything. You know what 'ex' amounts to anyway. I consider him just an ordinary citizen because he does not keep up with the times."

Mrs. Everett Bishop Dead.

Mrs. Cecil May Bishop, aged 17, wife of Everett Bishop, died at her home in the west part of town Sunday afternoon.

She is survived by her husband and 12 day old daughter, Mildred Marie.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. R. M. Talbert of the Christian church, were held Monday and interment made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Waterproof Paint.

Wooden tubs or barrels that are to be used for watering the chickens, should be painted with a waterproof paint made of skim-milk and cement. The method of making this paint is as follows:

Into one gallon of skim-milk mix three or four pounds of Portland cement. Mix thoroughly, stirring with a brush or stick, and keep stirred while you paint the inside of the barrel. The mixture may be colored with Venetian red or yellow ochre, if a colored paint is desired.

If there has been roup or other contagious disease about the chicken house, it is well to paint the interior with this mixture, to which should be added carbolic acid or other good disinfectant. Never mix more than will be required at one time. When through for the time being, wash the vessels in which the mixture was made, and also the brushes.

Trichinosis Danger.

The constant danger from trichinosis is brought to mind by the death, within six weeks, of three members of a family living near Dunlap, Iowa. Trichinosis is a disease which comes from eating pork that has not been sufficiently cooked. The parasites which cause it, burrow their way through the walls of the stomach, and into the vital organs of the body, causing intense pain and finally death. They exist in pork, imbedded in the flesh, and if the pork is not thoroughly cooked, the parasites are not killed, and resume activity when in the human stomach. Thorough cooking removes this danger. The disease is not common, but once in a while we have reports of fatalities of this kind.—Wallace's Farmer.

Good Citizenship.

A good citizen is not the only one who won't steal from his neighbor, or murder him, or embezzle from his employer. Nor is he necessarily a good citizen who pays his bills promptly and votes regularly. He does all these things and more. He believes in his community and the laws that are made for its betterment. He avoids doing himself all those things that he hires men to punish the other fellow for doing. Instead of considering himself an exception to restrictions he endeavors to be a splendid example of the wisdom of them. In a word, he does cheerfully and gladly what the law says others must do.—From the Detroit Free Press.

Gompers in Favor of Continued War.

Washington, May 27.—"Hating war as I do, I am free to confess that if I could stop this war now by a turn of my hand, I would not do it."

"I hold that something must be determined by this war, and that something is, whether the future belongs to autocracy and militarism or to democracy, liberty and humanity."

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made the above declaration in the course of his speech here before the meeting of the League to Enforce Peace.

RICH HILL 2; BUTLER 1.

Pitcher Hupp a Victim of Over-Confidence. Game Played in Rain.

Sunday afternoon's game with Rich Hill was one of the best ball games seen in Butler in many a day. It commenced raining before the first game was finished and the start of the Butler-Rich Hill game was delayed until four o'clock and then it rained during a good part of the game.

Hupp pitched for Butler and seldom has better pitching been seen in this town. He had everything. Once in the early part of the game two lucky hits, either of which would have been easy outs on a dry field, and an error filled the bases. The next three men struck out. In one inning Butler got three long hits off of the wonderful Maples, who by the way did not come up to his advance notices, but owing to the mud did not score. Had the ground been dry enough for base running the home team would have made runs enough to win two games from the hits they made.

Manager Ellis shifted Williams from shortstop to second base, where he played a dandy game. Henry caught another good game and the only man who had the nerve to try to steal on him was an easy out.

Maples' support was almost perfect, especially the out-field, which got everything that came their way.

In the ninth inning after two were out Hupp got a little careless and hit Craig. Then followed two lucky hits and Rich Hill won. It was a hard game to lose, but such is base ball.

Tuesday's Game.

In order to show the fans that Sunday's game was a fluke Manager Ellis secured the Rich Hill team for a return engagement Decoration Day and the visitors were beaten to a fare-you-well.

Manager Ellis trotted out his kid pitcher, Earl Orear, and that was enough. The boys from the Hill could not make them go safe and while they were striking out and knocking high flies the home boys were making life a burden to the Rich Hill pitchers—they tried three of them but could not stop Butler's hitting.

In the fifth inning Henry was struck on the finger by a foul tip and lost a finger nail. Barnes took his place and caught a good game.

The features of the games were circus catches in the outfield by A. Ellis and Sherman of Butler and Phillips of Rich Hill.

The score:

Rich Hill 200011000 4 4 4
Butler 201500100 9 7 3
Next Sunday Pleasanton, Kas., will be the attraction. They have won nine straight games from some of the strongest teams in Southern Kansas.
